2022 Global Games Market

Per Segment

$103.5Bn

Mobile gaming revenue in 2022 will account for 53% of the global market

Our revenues encompass consumer spending on games: physical and digital full-game copies, in-game spending, and subscription services like Xbox Game Pass. Mobile revenues exclude advertising. Our estimates exclude taxes, secondhand trade or secondary markets, advertising revenues earned in and around games, console and peripheral hardware, B2B services, and the online gambling and betting industry.

GAME DEVELOPMENTS OUTSIDE THE ECOSYSTEM

FABWELT Studios is a branch of the company focused on providing services for WEB3 gaming. The company helps other blockchain based gaming projects in their development process such as

- Game design Documents
- Graphical Designs
- Software support
- Game Development
- Lifetime Maintenance support

Over a period of time Revenue from FABWELT STUDIOS products like SHOEFY, BATTLE SAGA, PENGUIN KARTS resulted in generating over 1 Million USD in funds. There is royalty of 10-15% revenue fees annually after these developed games go live on the mainnet.
